Dinner

In 2021 the Ivan Franko National University of Lviv celebrates its 360th anniversary. Within the frameworks of this celebration the Faculty of International Relations on October 8, 2021 organizes an international conference “Diplomacy Unites: New Prospects of Common Traditions”, devoted to the 90th anniversary of the beginning of a unique three-year Master programme at the University of Lviv – Diplomatic Studies and to the 30th anniversary of the resumption of the Department of International Law.

Master programme “Diplomatic Studies” favoured the formation of a whole generation of diplomats and prominent specialists in international relations. At that time there were no analogues in the Central and Eastern Europe. Diplomatic Studies were unique in its structure and content innovative educational programme aimed at providing comprehensive training of highly qualified professionals whose task was not only to duly perform diplomatic and consular activities, but also to be effective civil servants, successful lawyers, fruitful journalists, responsible bankers. Graduates of Diplomatic Studies of the University of Lviv obtained diplomas with a scientific degree of Master of Diplomacy.

Solemn commemoration of the 90th anniversary of the foundation of Diplomatic Studies and 30 years of the resumption of the Department of International Law is honouring the outstanding historical importance of the diplomatic school and the school of International Law of the early 20th century and the heredity and succession of its main traditions, institutionally revived in 1992 as the Faculty of International Relations.
